ABOUT INDIAN MULBERRY

Fruit of Morinda Citrifolia
Indian Mulberry

अमृत फल (अच)

This fruit has many names in Ayurveda. Its Botanical Name is 'Morinda citrifolia' whereas its name in ancient books is 'Amrut Fal'. In Sanskrit it is called 'Acha' and in English 'Indian Mulberry'. This plant is used as medicine since ancient times. SAT-MAHA' has created a refreshing drink – Beverage i.e. 'Sharbat' which contains the 'Indian Mulberry' extract and Pure Honey, which is made available to the common people under Satmaha's Dancing Heart Brand "HealthAmrut".

As pure honey is the best carrier of nutrients, the nutrients in the 'Indian mulberry' extract and nutrients released by metabolism of food are supplied to each and every cell of the body 'even to the brain cells!' The rhythmic beating of heart throughout the life signifies the good health of an individual!

These heart-beats are examined by doctors through stethoscope or Ayurvedacharya by Nadi-Pariksha. The health of an individual is judged through this examination.

We are introducing 'Satmaha's Dancing Heart Brand'

'Health Amrut' in the market, so that the consumers could enjoy the good healthy life! The table sugar is purposefully NOT used in this Beverage. So the diabetic consumers can also enjoy this refreshing drink.

In 1961, 'University of Hawaii' in America studied various properties of this plant. Thereafter, this plant's medicinal properties are studied in 40 universities of more than 10 different countries like China, Malaysia, Germany, Japan, Pakistan, Spain etc. This god gifted plant is the only one which is at least 70% effective in majority of the people on this earth due to the presence of specific Phytochemicals, Flavonoides, Alkaloids, and Natural Steroids in the 'Indian mulberry' fruit. The extract of this fruit has the potential to lower the extreme diseases right from the head to the tip of toe of individuals. The 'Indian mulberry' extract is effective against diseases such as Despondency, Diabetes, Cancer, Asthma, Allergy, Heart Diseases, Digestion, Obesity, AIDS, Immune Power, High Blood Pressure, Urinary Diseases, Headache, Pain, Respiratory Diseases, Skin and Hair Diseases, Sex Power, Weight Loss, Insomnia, Smoking, Heat Disorders etc.

Indian Mulberry & Genuine Honey boost body metabolism & restores nutrient deficiency. Most of the diseases are caused due to deficiency of nutrients to the body. Due to this deficiency, the immune system of body is weakened and amount of diseases increases. It has been proved that this is the only food which is effective at the cellular level. This fruit has its medicinal history of more than 2000 years.

The benefits of this fruit extract are seen within a month. This fruit is studied by many Ayurvedic researchers in various Universities. Regular consumption of this extract Purifies the Blood, Rejuvenates the Body and Replaces the Dead Cells, Reduces the Risk of Cancer, Increases the Memory and Concentration and Decreases Joint Pains and Diabetes. Due to this extract Teeth and Gum Doldrums are Healed. It is Deeply Effective in the Stomach and Intestine Region. It Heals the Ulcers. It is also useful for the Healthy Working of the Liver. It helps the Regeneration of T-cells which acts as Defense against Bacterial Attack. It is also useful for Women in the Menstrual Disorders. It is effective against all types of Joint Pains, Hip Joint Pain, Muscle Pain, Spinal Disorders and Eye Power.

These 'Indian mulberry' trees are found in deep forests in various parts of India. This plant is used in various detection laboratories as a purifier. This fruit is completely free from any chemicals and poisonous substances. From any point of view, this fruit is the God Gift of Nature to the Human Kind. "Sat-Maha's" "Dancing Heart Brand" "Health Amrut" when consumed regularly, helps to keep us healthy and vigorous. All the members of the family should consume this regularly as refreshment.
